This November, FOX delivers major television events, all-new episodes and big guest stars, including MLB ON FOX coverage of the 2010 World Series Oct. 28, 30 and 31 (with if necessary games airing Nov. 1, 3 and 4); a spook-tacular night of Halloween-themed "Animation Demon-ation" Nov. 7; the season premiere of full-throttle action drama HUMAN TARGET Nov. 17 featuring the introduction of two new team members; and all-new episodes of GLEE, RAISING HOPE, HOUSE, LIE TO ME, HELL'S KITCHEN, BONES, FRINGE, RUNNING WILDE, THE GOOD GUYS, COPS and AMERICA'S MOST WANTED throughout the month.

Here are the highlights, night by night, for this November on FOX:

MONDAY

Prickly antiheros invade Mondays this November, as Dr. Gregory House (Hugh Laurie) dispenses three all-new installments of HOUSE and Dr. Cal Lightman (Tim Roth) reveals the truth in three all-new episodes of LIE TO ME.

Monday, Nov. 1

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – "Now What?"

In an encore of this season's premiere episode, House and Cuddy (Lisa Edelstein) call in sick to explore their recent declarations of love and attempt to make a real relationship work. Meanwhile, Princeton Plainsboro is left without accreditation as a Level 1 Trauma Center due to the hospital's neurosurgeon falling ill, and the team scrambles to diagnose their sick colleague. When they discover there is more to the illness than originally suspected, they turn to House, who remains unavailable, leaving the team on its own.

LIE TO ME (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Sweet Sixteen”

In an encore airing, after Lightman’s former Pentagon colleague is killed in a car bomb, Lightman and Foster (Kelli Williams) are forced to revisit a series of events from their past, including the therapy sessions that brought them together.

[EDITOR’S NOTE: If World Series Game 5 is necessary, the baseball game will air live starting at 7:30 PM ET/4:30 PM PT, replacing HOUSE and LIE TO ME, and local programming will air in primetime on the West Coast.]

Monday, Nov. 8

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Office Politics”

Amber Tamblyn joins HOUSE for a multi-episode arc as Martha Masters, a brilliant but inexperienced third-year medical student whom Cuddy forces House to hire as a female team member in Thirteen’s absence. In the midst of a tight senatorial re-election race, the New Jersey incumbent’s campaign manager (guest star Jack Coleman) mysteriously falls ill with liver failure and temporary paralysis. After a surprising campaign announcement is made by the incumbent (guest star Pat Finn), House and the team look to the candidate to find clues about the patient’s condition. Meanwhile, Foreman (Omar Epps) learns that Taub (Peter Jacobson) has a past connection to Masters, and in an effort to save his patient’s life, House must make a critical decision that may compromise his relationship with Cuddy.

LIE TO ME (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Canary’s Song”

When Lightman investigates a coal mine explosion that killed six miners, he suspects that foul play may have been involved. To find the truth, he puts his life at risk and descends below the surface. Meanwhile, the FBI comes back to The Lightman Group looking for help with another case, and Foster and Torres offer to work pro bono.

Monday, Nov. 15

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “A Pox on Our House”

After a 200-year-old medicine jar found on an off-shore shipwreck shatters in a teenage girl’s palm, she is admitted to Princeton Plainsboro for symptoms closely linked to smallpox. When the Center for Disease Control’s Dr. Dave Broda (guest star Dylan Baker) institutes a lockdown on the hospital and suspends House’s team’s ability to diagnose, Masters (guest star Tamblyn) grows suspicious of Broda’s motives and becomes convinced that the patient is suffering from a different disease. The girl’s father soon experiences similar symptoms, and House is forced to make a precarious decision that puts his own life in jeopardy. Meanwhile, Wilson (Robert Sean Leonard) and Sam (guest star Cynthia Watros) comfort a 6-year-old chemotherapy patient (guest star Devon Woods) who prompts them to examine their relationship.

LIE TO ME (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Beyond Belief”

Lightman goes head-to-head with the leader of a self-help empire (guest star David Sutcliffe) to free a wealthy woman (guest star Julia Campbell) who may be under the control of the cult-like leader. When Lightman begins to investigate, things get personal as he suspects the group of threatening him and his daughter, Emily (Hayley McFarland).

Monday, Nov. 22

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Small Sacrifices”

Science and faith are called into question when a patient (guest star Kuno Becker) is admitted to the hospital following his reenactment of the Crucifixion. Meanwhile, Taub questions his wife, Rachel (guest star Jennifer Crystal Foley), about her relationship with an infidelity support group member, and the team attends a co-worker’s wedding where Wilson’s relationship with Sam (guest star Watros) takes an unexpected turn.

LIE TO ME (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Smoked”

The terminally ill owner of a successful chain of restaurants (guest star John Amos) hires Lightman to fulfill his dying wish: to track down his daughter’s killer. In the process, Lightman uncovers the twisted dynamic of the fractured family empire, leading him to suspect sibling rivalry as the motive and that the patriarch’s sons might be somehow responsible for the death of their sister, who was first in line to run the family business.

TUESDAY

FOX Tuesdays are full of laughs! Starting Nov. 9, catch five straight weeks of all-new Tuesday-night programming, including all-new installments of fan-favorite phenomenon GLEE and new series RAISING HOPE and RUNNING WILDE.

Tuesday, Nov. 2

GLEE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Funk”

Broadway superstars Idina Menzel and Jonathan Groff guest-star in an encore episode. The glee club gets some news that’s sure to rattle a few nerves; Quinn (Dianna Agron) connects with her “funky” side with a little help from Mercedes (Amber Riley); and Will (Matthew Morrison) gets revenge on Sue (Jane Lynch).

FOX NEWS SPECIAL: AMERICA’S ELECTION HEADQUARTERS – THE 2010 MIDTERMS (9:00 PM ET LIVE/8:00 PM CT LIVE/7:00 PM MT LIVE/9:00 PM PT LIVE)

FOX News offers special live network coverage of midterm election night returns.

[EDITOR’S NOTE: RAISING HOPE and RUNNING WILDE are preempted this night.]

Tuesday, Nov. 9

GLEE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Never Been Kissed”

After Finn (Cory Monteith) and Sam (guest star Chord Overstreet) find an unconventional way of controlling their urges, a few glee club members pick up on the strategy and start using it too. But when Coach Beiste (guest star Dot-Marie Jones) gets wind of what they are up to, the glee club has some explaining to do.

RAISING HOPE (9:00-9:30 PM ET/PT) – “The Sniffles”

When Hope catches a cold, Virginia (Martha Plimpton) goes into panic mode because the family doesn't have health insurance, so she locks Maw Maw (Cloris Leachman) in her bedroom to avoid getting sick. However, when Jimmy (Lucas Neff) realizes that he can't afford to take Hope to a doctor without insurance, he figures out a way to secure a second job at the grocery store where Sabrina (Shannon Woodward) works.

RUNNING WILDE (9:30-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Best Man”

Steve and Andy's (guest star David Cross) rivalry for Emmy's affection reaches a breaking point leading to Steve inadvertently throwing an elaborate Renaissance fairy tale wedding for his adversary and the woman he loves.

Tuesday, Nov. 16

GLEE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Substitute”

When Mr. Schuester gets sick, a substitute teacher (guest star Gwyneth Paltrow) takes over his Spanish class and the glee club and winds up winning over the whole New Directions clan. Meanwhile, when Sue (Jane Lynch) fills in for Principal Figgins (Iqbal Theba) as McKinley's top dog, she tries to flex her power on campus.

RAISING HOPE (9:00-9:30 PM ET/PT) – “Blue Dots”

When Hope starts imitating the dogs at her day care, Jimmy decides to enroll her in an expensive, high-end center. But the blemish on Burt's (Garret Dillahunt) record needs to be expunged before Hope has any chance of getting accepted. However, when trying to turn Burt's past around the rest of the family ends up in a bind of their own and must pull together to straighten things out with the law.

RUNNING WILDE (9:30-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Mental Flaws”

When Steve (Will Arnett) invites Emmy (Keri Russell) to a charity ball, she is determined to prove to him that there is more to a woman than her physical appearance.

Tuesday, Nov. 23

GLEE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT)

Sue's “Nazi-hunting” mother (guest star Carol Burnett) comes to town to pay her daughters a visit. As the glee club works toward competing in Sectionals, burgeoning romances continue to develop among the students.

RAISING HOPE (9:00-9:30 PM ET/PT) – “Meet the Grandparents”

Instead of sleeping in and ordering pizza, per his normal Thanksgiving custom, Jimmy invites Hope's other grandparents, Dale (guest star Greg Germann) and Margine (guest star Valerie Mahaffey), to join the Chances for a more traditional holiday dinner. The Chances soon realize that the apple doesn't fall far from the tree when Dale and Margine kidnap Hope, and it's up to them to get her back.

RUNNING WILDE (9:30-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “It's a Trade-Off”

Thinking their own lives are more difficult than each other's, Steve and Emmy walk in each other shoes, leaving Steve in charge of Puddle (Stefania Owen) and Emmy socializing the night away to impress a powerful magazine editor (guest star Ana Gasteyer).

WEDNESDAY

As the temperatures outside drop, FOX Wednesdays heat up with three fiery all-new installments of HELL'S KITCHEN and two all-new episodes of HUMAN TARGET, including the second season premiere featuring the addition of Ilsa Pucci (Indira Varma) and Ames (Janet Montgomery) to the team.

Wednesday, Nov. 3

HELL'S KITCHEN (8:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “9 Chefs Compete”

With tension building between the contestants as the competition heats up, Chef Ramsay tests the chefs' imagination, creativity and ability to work together. In the first challenge, the teams are asked to create one cohesive dish using five randomly selected ingredients, with the team that prepares the most harmonious dish jetting off to Las Vegas and the losers forced to wash, peel and cut more than 1,000 potatoes. Later, Ramsay challenges the teams to shop on a budget and transform four classic ingredients into elegant dishes worthy of fine dining. Four special judges – chef Mark Peel, food critic Sophie Gayot, food blogger Libby Rego and restaurant manager Justin Wyborn – critique the teams' creations, and HELL'S KITCHEN welcomes some very special guests to the show's most elegant dinner service to date in an encore of the series' milestone 100th episode.

[EDITOR'S NOTE: If World Series Game 6 is necessary, the baseball game will air live starting at 7:30 PM ET/4:30 PM PT, replacing HELL'S KITCHEN, and local programming will air in primetime on the West Coast.]

Wednesday, Nov. 10

HELL'S KITCHEN (8:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “8 Chefs Compete”

After a nail-biting 100th dinner service, Chef Ramsay surprises the contestants by announcing that the battle of the sexes is returning to the competition. Chef Ramsay pits the women's team against the men's team in a blind taste-test challenge with the winning team earning a shopping spree and a fine dining experience at Chef Michael Mina's famed restaurant, XIV, and the losing team taking on the less glamorous task of sorting through trash. Later, concerned with the lack of teamwork at this point in the competition, Chef Ramsay challenges the teams to compete in a relay designed to test their cooking precision and communication skills. That night, dinner service disappoints not only Chef Ramsay but also two special guests: restaurateur Josiah Citrin and NFL quarterback Matt Cassel.

Wednesday, Nov. 17

HUMAN TARGET (8:00-9:00 PM ETPT) – “Ilsa Pucci” – Season Premiere

Picking up from the thrilling first season cliffhanger, Chance (Mark Valley) and Guererro (Jackie Earle Haley) stage a daring rescue of Winston (Chi McBride) from the hands of his torturous kidnappers. And two beautiful women enter the team's lives: billionaire philanthropist Ilsa Pucci, who fears for her life after the mysterious death of her husband; and Ames, a chameleon-like master thief who inadvertently becomes involved in the plot to murder Ilsa. Tahmoh Penikett guest-stars.

FOX NOVEMBER 2010 – Page 6

HELL'S KITCHEN (9:00 PM- 10:00 PM ET/PT) – “6 Chefs Compete”

With only six chefs remaining in the competition, Chef Ramsay raises the stakes and asks the contestants to create a single bite that makes a bold first impression. For the amuse-bouche challenge, Chef Ramsay invites Michelin-starred chefs from some of Los Angeles' most critically acclaimed restaurants to judge the contestants, with the winner getting a taste of the sweet life at LA Market at the JW Marriott Hotel. Later, dinner service disappoints as the teams show a lack of cooperation, leaving hungry diners dissatisfied with their meals.

Wednesday, Nov. 24

HUMAN TARGET (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Wife’s Tale”

Chance must protect the wife (guest star Molly Parker) of a man he killed seven years ago as his conscience eats at him for his past misdeeds. Meanwhile, Ames hopes Guerrero will take her under his wing, and Ilsa is shocked at what she discovers about the business. M.C. Gainey also guest-stars.

HELL'S KITCHEN (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “5 Chefs Compete”

With only five chefs remaining, the contestants must prove that they have the passion and talent to move forward in the competition. In a challenge designed to test who has what it takes to cater to LA Market's high-profile clientele, Chef Ramsay asks the contestants to prepare and serve their signature dishes in food trucks to sell to the downtown Los Angeles lunch crowd. The chef with the most popular dish earns a Beverly Hills makeover by celebrity hairstylist José Eber and fashion guru Steven Cojocarú, while the rest of the contestants are forced to scrub down their food trucks and prepare HELL'S KITCHEN for dinner service. Later, a disappointing dinner service and underwhelming individual performances push Chef Ramsay to the edge.

THURSDAY

On Thursdays this November, it's the special MLB ON FOX presentation of Game 2 of the 2010 World Series, plus three all-new mysterious episodes of BONES and three all-new fascinating installments of FRINGE.

Thursday, Oct. 28

FOX SPORTS SPECIAL: WORLD SERIES GAME 2 (7:30 PM ET/4:30 PM PT)

FOX Sports presents exclusive live HD coverage of Major League Baseball's 2010 postseason with Game 2 of the 2010 World Series. Play-by-play broadcaster Joe Buck and analyst Tim McCarver will be on the call.

Thursday, Nov. 4

BONES (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Bones That Weren't”

After the skull of a promising young dancer is found lodged in concrete at a construction site, Brennan (Emily Deschanel), Booth (David Boreanaz) and the Jeffersonian team must first figure out what happened to the victim's skeletal structure. Meanwhile, when Hannah (guest star Katheryn Winnick) is put on assignment in a dodgy part of town, her safety is jeopardized and her life is put in critical danger. SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE's Stephen “tWitch” Boss also guest-stars in the all-new episode.

FOX NOVEMBER 2010 – Page 7

FRINGE (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Amber 31422”

The alternate universe Fringe Division investigates a shocking breach of security when a twin frees his brother (guest stars Shawn and Aaron Ashmore) from a quarantined Amber area. As the team sets out to crack this sophisticated case, Walternate (John Noble) experiments more with Olivia (Anna Torv) as she reenters the tank. Meanwhile, visions of Peter continue to haunt Olivia about returning to the “other side.”

[EDITOR’S NOTE: If World Series Game 7 is necessary, the baseball game will air live starting at 7:30 PM ET/4:30 PM PT, replacing BONES and FRINGE, and local programming will air in primetime on the West Coast.]

Thursday, Nov. 11

BONES (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Shallow in the Deep”

The past and present collide when human remains from a 150-year-old slave ship, the Amelia Rose, surface. The team is tasked to give the deceased a proper burial but make an unforeseen discovery linked to a recent murder. In the course of the investigation, Booth and Brennan are led to a different kind of ship – a cougar cruise – where they learn their victim was seen moments before his death. Meanwhile, Sweets (John Francis Daley) struggles to maintain a casual relationship with Daisy (guest star Carla Gallo), and Cam (Tamara Taylor) discovers a surprising and emotional connection to the Amelia Rose.

FRINGE (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “6995 kHz”

Back “over here,” the Fringe Division investigates a bizarre phenomenon when 15 people up and down the Eastern Seaboard, all suffer retrograde amnesia from listening to their shortwave radios on the same frequency. Much to Walter’s dismay, Peter (Joshua Jackson) presses on with piecing together the mass destruction device. Just as alternate Olivia and Peter’s chemistry deepens, the anticipation of Olivia’s return escalates.

Thursday, Nov. 18

BONES (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Babe in the Bar”

When human remains are discovered in the world’s largest chocolate bar, a “sweet” event for a candymaker (guest star Wayne Knight) quickly turns bitter. As eccentric chocolate factory owner Jimmy Walpert deals with the tragedy, the team soon discovers that the victim was a mysterious character whose past is full of secrets, lies and love affairs. Meanwhile, Cam struggles with her daughter’s (guest star Tiffany Hines) decision to attend a university that fails to meet her high standards, and Hodgins (TJ Thyne) asks Angela (Michaela Conlin) to arrange a party to announce her not-so-secret pregnancy.

FRINGE (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Abducted”

When a serial kidnapper “over there” strikes again, the emotional and familiar case hits home for Colonel Broyles (Lance Reddick), sending a determined Olivia to uncover additional details about the abductions. In the meantime, Olivia fights on and reunites with Henry (guest star Andre Royo) to enlist his services on an intense and covert mission to return home.

FRIDAY

FOX Fridays feature fan-favorite episodes of HOUSE and four all-new installments of the dangerously hilarious THE GOOD GUYS.

Friday, Oct. 29

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Unwritten”

In an encore episode, when Alice (guest star Amy Irving), the author of a popular young adults' book series, inexplicably suffers a seizure moments during an attempt to take her own life, the Princeton Plainsboro team must evaluate both her underlying medical conditions and her unstable psychological state. House becomes particularly motivated, as he's a fan of her books, and is convinced that the key to unlocking the mysteries of Alice's condition lies in the pages of her most recent novel. Meanwhile, House takes Cuddy on a double date with Wilson and his girlfriend, Sam (guest star Watros).

THE GOOD GUYS (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Whistleblower”

Jack (Colin Hanks) and Dan (Bradley Whitford) investigate a spurious inspection report at a corrupt oil company, only to discover that they might have actually stumbled onto a deadly criminal conspiracy with Liz's (Jenny Wade) boyfriend, Kyle (guest star Chris J. Johnson) stuck right in the middle.

Friday, Nov. 5

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Massage Therapy”

When a patient (guest star Erin Cahill) is admitted to Princeton Plainsboro after suffering severe, uncontrollable vomiting, House and the team make unexpected discoveries about her identity in an encore episode. Meanwhile, House gives Chase's (Jesse Spencer) new hire (guest star Vinessa Shaw) a cold welcome, and a visit from House's massage therapist (guest star Jamie Tompkins) forces House and Cuddy to confront reservations about their relationship in an encore airing.

THE GOOD GUYS (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Silence of the Dan”

While investigating a stolen painting at a doctor's house, Dan faints, and is restricted to desk duty until he recovers. Despite the handicap, Jack and Dan must find and capture the mysterious art thief (guest star Jason E. Kelly), who may have left more at the crime scene than he intended.

Friday, Nov. 12

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Unplanned Parenthood”

Jennifer Grey guest-stars in an encore episode. After a newborn experiences inexplicable breathing problems and liver failure, House and the team look at the medical history of the baby's mother, Abbey (guest star Grey). Meanwhile, following Cuddy's directive, House challenges Foreman and Taub to hire a female doctor to join the team. And when Cuddy asks House to babysit her daughter, both House and Wilson learn a few hard lessons in parenting.

THE GOOD GUYS (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “The Getaway”

Jack and Liz leave town for a romantic weekend away at a bed and breakfast, but the fire is short-lived when Jack instantly becomes suspicious of the owner's (guest star Michael Weston) strange curiosity. Things heat up again, however, when Dan rushes out to the once-quiet B&B after learning about Jack's extracurricular investigation.

FOX NOVEMBER 2010 – Page 9

Friday, Nov. 19

HOUSE (8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Office Politics”

An encore of the Nov. 8 installment.

THE GOOD GUYS (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Supercops”

While following up on a stolen truck investigation, Jack and Dan wind up uncovering a major heist involving a shipment of high-profile diamonds. Meanwhile, tensions rise when Dan discovers Jack is interviewing for a position on an elite police unit.

SATURDAY

This November, FOX Saturday features the special MLB ON FOX presentation of Game 3 of the 2010 World Series, three all-new episodes of COPS, three all-new special-edition episodes of AMERICA’S MOST WANTED and “Saturday Night FRINGE,” late-night airings of not-to-be-missed encore episodes.

Saturday, Oct. 30

FOX SPORTS SPECIAL: WORLD SERIES GAME 3 (6:30 PM ET/3:30 PM PT)

FOX Sports presents exclusive live HD coverage of Major League Baseball’s 2010 postseason with Game 3 of the 2010 World Series. Play-by-play broadcaster Joe Buck and analyst Tim McCarver will be on the call.

RAISING HOPE (9:30-10:00 PM ET/6:30-7:00 PM PT) – “Happy Halloween”

When Sabrina’s boyfriend can’t make it to the deli guy’s Halloween party, Jimmy offers to put on his costume and go in his place. Virginia takes Maw Maw, who is dressed as a cat, trick-or-treating, while Burt plots ways to play tricks on Jimmy in an encore episode.

FRINGE (11:00 PM-Midnight ET/PT) – “The Box” – Saturday Night FRINGE

In a late-night encore airing, the Fringe Team “over here” investigates a mystifying case where people are discovered in a trance-like state that ultimately leads to their death. The unlikely suspect: a mysterious box. As Peter and Walter collaborate to study its properties, alternate Olivia turns up the heat on an unsuspecting Peter. Meanwhile, key information about the future is revealed to Walter and Nina (Blair Brown) at the emotional reading of William Bell’s last will and testament.

RUNNING WILDE (Midnight-12:30 AM ET/PT) – “Into the Wilde”

David Cross guest-stars in an encore episode. Steve’s plan to take Emmy and Puddle on a family vacation is interrupted by the arrival of Emmy’s fiancé, Andy Weeks (guest star Cross), at the Wilde estate, who has his own plans for Steve.

[EDITOR’S NOTE: RAISING HOPE will air immediately following World Series Game 3 in all time zones only if the baseball game ends early.]

FOX NOVEMBER 2010 – Page 10

Saturday, Nov. 6

COPS (8:00-8:30 PM ET/PT) – “U.S. Marshals”

A member of the United States Marshals Service, Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force, briefs the local police on a kidnapping case involving a 4-year-old boy and two Hispanic men in suspect who demanded $100,000 ransom for the child. Another investigator from the same Task Force recruits the local police to arrest a fugitive suspicious of possession of drugs.

COPS (8:30-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Chases, Stings and Rescues”

In an encore episode, undercover officers from the Boynton Beach Police Department in Florida head up a drug sting that busts multiple dealers. Meanwhile, officers at the Harris County Sheriff's Office in Texas attempt to rescue a dog from an overturned car.

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “International Manhunt Special Edition”
AMERICA'S MOST WANTED teams up with Interpol for a manhunt of global proportions. One international gang, the Pink Panthers, is responsible for scores of “white-glove” heists from London to Tokyo, lifting over $100 million worth of jewels.

FRINGE (11:00 PM-Midnight ET/PT) – “The Plateau” – Saturday Night FRINGE

In an encore episode set “over there,” timing is everything as a series of anomalous events lead the Fringe Division to investigate deadly incidents with unimaginable coincidences. As the freaky crimes continue to occur, the team is in a race against time to protect potential victims. Meanwhile, Secretary Bishop shares his strategic plan with Colonel Broyles, and Olivia grapples with a heart-stopping vision.

RUNNING WILDE (Midnight-12:30 AM ET/PT) – “Oil and Water”

Paul Shaffer and David Cross guest-star in an encore episode. To impress Emmy, Steve vows to quit his job at Wilde Oil; Puddle gets some unusual help on her science fair project; and Fa'ad (Peter Serafinowicz) gets locked in a vodka cellar.

Saturday, Nov. 13

COPS (8:00-8:30 PM ET/PT) – “Probable Cause”

During a routine traffic stop, officers from the Nye County Sheriff's Office in Pahrump, NV, pull over a vehicle for a missing headlight and end up busting the suspect for possession after the discovery of a marijuana plant and other illegal substances. Meanwhile, officers in Amarillo, TX, report to a major vehicle crash on a busy highway to eventually make an arrest for a DUI.

COPS (8:30-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Resisting Arrest #5”

In an encore episode, drunken suspects – one involved in a domestic dispute and one with offensive ringtones – force officers in Amarillo, TX, and Boynton Beach, FL, to take a stance on intoxication.

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Child Predator Crackdown Special Edition”
AMERICA'S MOST WANTED goes undercover on the streets of Southeast Asia to hunt down child predators and expose the unspeakable, yet all-too-prevalent human sex-trafficking industry. John Walsh interviews a human-rights activist who has dedicated her life to helping others despite her own heartbreaking childhood as a sex slave.

FOX NOVEMBER 2010 – Page 11

FRINGE (11:00 PM-Midnight ET/PT) – “Do Shapeshifters Dream of Electric Sheep?” – Saturday Night FRINGE

Newton (guest star Sebastian Roché), concerned about the consequences of a distressing development involving a high-ranking official, is forced to call to action a sleeping shapeshifter (guest star Marcus Giamatti). As the team gathers evidence, they move the investigation to Massive Dynamic, where Olivia goes on high alert and Walter finds himself in a perilous situation in an encore episode of FRINGE.

RUNNING WILDE (Midnight-12:30 AM ET/PT) – “Best Man”
An encore of the Nov. 9 episode.

Saturday, Nov. 20

COPS (8:00-8:30 PM ET/PT) – “Morons on Parade #3”

The Nye County Sheriff’s Office in Pahrump, NV, is forced to lay down spikes in the road to detain a suspicious vehicle failing to yield at first siren, while officers of the Hillsborough County Sheriff’s Office in Tampa, FL, call for back-up units to help break up a fight between neighbors involving aggravated battery and gunfire.

COPS (8:30-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Stupid Behavior #4”

Simple calls turn into bigger busts for police officers in California and Florida in an encore episode.

AMERICA’S MOST WANTED (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “USA Human Trafficking Special Edition”

John Walsh returns from his international manhunt to explore commercial sexual exploitation here at home. AMERICA’S MOST WANTED sheds light on the human sex-trafficking problem in the United States with the help of a former victim who is determined to work as an advocate against this $32-billion-a-year industry.

TBD (11:00 PM-Midnight ET/PT)

RUNNING WILDE (Midnight-12:30 AM ET/PT) – “Mental Flaws”
An encore of the Nov. 16 episode.

FOX SPORTS SPECIAL: WORLD SERIES GAME 4 (8:00 PM ET/5:00 PM PT)

FOX Sports presents exclusive live HD coverage of Major League Baseball's 2010 postseason with Game 4 of the 2010 World Series. Play-by-play broadcaster Joe Buck and analyst Tim McCarver will be on the call.

Sunday, Nov. 7

THE SIMPSONS (7:00-7:30 PM ET/PT) – “Elementary School Musical”

Jemaine Clement, Bret McKenzie and GLEE's Lea Michele, Cory Monteith and Amber Riley make special guest voice appearances in an encore episode. Lisa (Yeardley Smith) spends a week at performing arts camp, where she is greeted by her artsy counselors (guest voices Clement and McKenzie) and fellow musically inclined campers (guest voices Michele, Monteith and Riley), who inspire her to embrace her creative side. But after she returns to Springfield, Lisa becomes restless with her ho-hum suburban lifestyle and sneaks off to Sprooklyn in hopes of connecting with her inner hipster.

THE SIMPSONS (7:30-8:00 PM ET/PT) – “Treehouse of Horror XX”

In an encore of last year's 20th anniversary “Treehouse of Horror” trilogy, the frightfest begins with “Dial ‘M’ for Murder or Press ‘#.’” Outraged when another student is chosen to represent the class in National Reading Round-Up, Lisa lands in detention, and Bart (Nancy Cartwright) seizes the opportunity to offer her a bargain that goes awry in an homage to classic Alfred Hitchcock films. Next is a parody of the horror film “28 Days Later” in which Krusty's (Dan Castellaneta) latest fast-food sandwich transforms Springfieldians into zombies. Last is a nod to the Broadway musical “Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street,” in which Homer (Castellaneta) accidentally falls through a trap door at Moe's (Hank Azaria) tavern and is impaled on pipes attached to Moe's Microbrewery. Marge (Julie Kavner) and the barflies drown their sorrows on the delicious microbrew now mixed with Homer's blood.

THE SIMPSONS (8:00-8:30 PM ET/PT) – “Treehouse of Horror XXI”

Beware of ouija boards, vampires and unexpected guests in the 21st annual installment of the “Treehouse of Horror.” In “War and Pieces,” the first of three spine-tingling tales, Marge, worried about the effects of excessively violent video games, encourages Bart and Milhouse (Pamela Hayden) to give wholesome, classic board games a shot. The best friends discover that board games aren't boring after all when they find themselves playing a real-life game. The supernatural spells continue in “Tweenlight,” when Lisa becomes smitten with a mysterious new student, Edmund (guest voice Daniel Radcliffe), who also happens to be a vampire. When a romance blossoms, the young lovers run away to Dracula-la Land, leaving Homer to come to Lisa's rescue. In the final frightening fable, “Master and Cadaver,” Homer and Marge set sail on a romantic second honeymoon, but are interrupted when they rescue Roger (guest voice Hugh Laurie), a castaway who escaped an attempted poisoning on his ship.

THE CLEVELAND SHOW (8:30-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “It's The Great Pancake, Cleveland Brown”

Cleveland (Mike Henry) crushes Cleveland Jr.'s (Kevin Michael Richardson) spirit when he forbids him from trick-or-treating because he thinks he is too old. Junior reinvents himself as a “cool kid” and is invited to attend a Halloween party with Roberta (Reagan Gomez). When he gets picked on and is unhappy with his new persona, Cleveland and the gang come to Junior's rescue and encourage his enthusiasm for the holiday.

FAMILY GUY (9:00-9:30 PM ET/PT) – “Halloween on Spooner Street”

Peter (Seth MacFarlane) and Joe (Patrick Warburton) team up to execute a series of painful and humiliating Halloween pranks on unsuspecting family, friends and neighbors. While Brian (MacFarlane) shows Stewie (MacFarlane) the ropes of trick-or-treating, Meg (Mila Kunis) sets out to attend her first high school Halloween party with high hopes for the evening.

AMERICAN DAD (9:30-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Best Little Horror House in Langley Falls”

Stan (Seth MacFarlane) and Francine (Wendy Schaal) have had the scariest haunted house on the block for eight years running, but when one of their neighbors provides some stiff competition, Stan ups the ante with a “killer” set-up. Meanwhile, Steve (Scott Grimes) falls head over heels for his overprotective friend’s younger sister and competes to win her heart in a Halloween showdown.

Sunday, Nov. 14

THE SIMPSONS (8:00-8:30 PM ET/PT) – “Lisa Simpson, This Isn’t Your Life”

Discovering that Marge was once a stellar A+ student whose grades plummeted after being distracted, Lisa fears that she will end up just like her mom unless she pledges to focus solely on academics in an encore episode. When Marge makes a secret deal allowing Lisa to attend her dream school, Lisa learns a lesson in family and altruism. Meanwhile, Bart puts Nelson (Nancy Cartwright) in his place and unintentionally claims the title of “School Bully.”

THE CLEVELAND SHOW (8:30-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Little Man on Campus”

Coach Cleveland gets greedy to win the high school baseball state championship game and turns to cheating when his star pitcher goes out for the season in an all-new episode that also features David Lynch as a guest voice.

FAMILY GUY (9:00-9:30 PM ET/PT) – “Baby, You Knock Me Out”

When Peter receives tickets to a boxing match as a birthday gift, he volunteers Lois (Alex Borstein) to compete. To everyone’s surprise, Lois dominates in the ring and Peter decides to become her fight promoter. Her frustration with Peter turns into motivation in the ring as the housewife turns champion.

AMERICAN DAD (9:30-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “Stan’s Food Restaurant”

Stan is ecstatic when Roger (Seth MacFarlane) offers to help him live out his lifelong dream of opening a restaurant to rival his favorite childhood haunt – until their different visions for what the eatery should be cause havoc. Meanwhile, Steve meets Ashley (guest voice Hayden Panettiere), the new girl in school who invites him over while her parents are out of town.

Sunday, Nov. 21

THE CLEVELAND SHOW (7:00-7:30 PM ET/PT) – “The Curious Case of Jr. Working at The Stool”

Ashley Tisdale, David Lynch, Ed Asner and Kristen Wiig guest-voice in an encore episode. Cleveland teaches Junior responsibility by challenging him to get a job, and is delighted that Cleveland Jr. lands a job at The Stool...until Cleveland Jr. starts commenting on the number of beers his father consumes and sets limits on the guys’ time at the bar. Meanwhile, Roberta competes with Lacey (guest voice Tisdale), the rich girl in school, and gets more than she bargained for.

THE SIMPSONS (7:30-8:00 PM ET/PT) – “Loan-A-Lisa”

In encore episode, Facebook ceator Mark Zuckerberg and Nobel Peace Prize winner Muhammad Yunus make special guest voice appearances. When Grampa gives each member of the family a portion of his savings, Lisa invests in Nelson’s brand-new business venture, but soon fears that her friend’s instant success might lure him away from the classroom. She introduces Nelson to the successful creator of Facebook, Mark Zuckerberg (guest-voicing as himself), only to find out that he too dropped out of school. But when the soaring business takes a sudden turn, Lisa teaches her friend that education is invaluable.

THE SIMPSONS (8:00-8:30 PM ET/PT) – “The Fool Monty”

After learning that he is suffering from multiple illnesses and has only a few weeks to live, Mr. Burns (Harry Shearer) becomes distraught by the town’s less-than-sensitive reaction to his announcement. Following an unexpected turn of events, Bart finds Mr. Burns weak and vulnerable in the wilderness and secretly takes him into the Simpsons’ home. But when Homer and Marge learn about their new houseguest, they decide it’s payback time, and Lisa, determined to stand up for Mr. Burns, learns that old habits die hard.

THE CLEVELAND SHOW (8:30-9:00 PM ET/PT) – “Fat and Wet”

Cleveland Jr. and Kendra (guest voice Aseem Batra), ashamed of their appearance in a swimsuit, feel left out of the fun when the family spends an afternoon in the pool and petition to pass a bill to grant equal rights for those who are overweight. Disgruntled by their defeat in the polls, Junior and Kendra flee to Wisconsin, a land where they feel more free and accepted, and Cleveland and Lester (Kevin Michael Richardson) vow to bring them back to where they belong. Niecy Nash guest-voices.

FAMILY GUY (9:00-9:30 PM ET/PT) – “Brian Writes a Bestseller”

Feeling discouraged with the progress of his writing career, Brian decides to throw in the towel until Stewie become his manager and one of his books hits the bestseller list. But when the fame goes to his head, Brian gets a wake-up call from Bill Maher (guest-voicing as himself). Meanwhile, Lois decides that she and Peter need separate beds, a decision that leaves Peter looking for a new cuddle buddy.

AMERICAN DAD (9:30-10:00 PM ET/PT) – “White Rice”

After an argument between Stan and Francine breaks out, Stan suggests they go see a counselor (guest voice Jason Alexander), who hypnotizes Francine and reawakens her lifelong dream of being a comedian. Meanwhile, Steve brings home a potential love interest for Klaus.
